Something There
from Walt Disney's BEAUTY AND THE BEAST

Lyrics by Howard Ashman
Music by Alan Menken

Bright
C Dm11
G7
C
Play 3 times

Violin "mf"

Belle: There's something sweet way,
and almost I thought I saw.
And when we

Dm7/C G7/B C

mean and he was coarse and unrefined.
And now he's dear,
and so un-

Dm/C G7/B C C7/Bb
F/A Fm/Ab

touch she doesn't shudder at my paw.
No, it can't be.
I'll just ig-

E/Ab
A7/G
Dm/F Dm/G G7

1.
C

sure nore.
I wonder why I didn't see it there before?
But then she's never looked at me that way before?
Beast: She glanced this

Belle: New, and a bit alarming.

Who'd have ever thought that this could B♭6/C  C  B♭/C  C  B♭/C  C  F  Fmaj7

be? cresc.

F6  Em  Em(add9)  G/A  A9

—that he’s no Prince Charming, but there’s something

C/D  D9  G

in him that I simply didn’t see.

Dm/G  G  G7sus  G7

Mrs. Potts: Well bless my soul.

Lumiere: Well who’d have thought? Cogsworthy: Well who’d have

C  Well, who indeed?

Dm/G

known? Lumiere: And who’d have guessed they’d come together on their C          C7/B♭
It's so peculiarr. Wait and see.            F/A           Fm/Ab        E7/G# own?  Both: We'll wait and see All three: a few days more. There may be

Dm/F        G7          C
some-thing there that wasn't there before.               Cogsworth: You know perhaps there

Dm7/G       G7          C
some-thing there that wasn't there before.           Mrs. Potts: There may be

Dm7/G       G7          C
some-thing there that wasn't there before.

grad. decresc.

rit.

pp