karnatsele = Romanian carnat means sausage kashtaval = Romanian cascaval is a sheep-milk cheese kastravet = Romanian castravete means cucumber patlozhan = primarily eggplant, roasted over an open flame-the insides removed and mashed, oil, onion and vinegar added; depending on taste. However a red tomato was also called patlozhele.

Y'kum purkan min shamaya is from the siddur. It means "may salvation arise from heaven" in Aramaic and is the beginning of several prayers said Shabes morning after the blessings following the haftore.
