The musical score consists of four staves of music. The top staff is for the piano, indicated by a treble clef and a bass clef. The second staff is for the right hand of the piano, indicated by a treble clef. The third staff is for the left hand of the piano, indicated by a bass clef. The bottom staff is for the voice, indicated by a soprano clef. The music is in common time, with a key signature of two sharps. The tempo is marked as Larghetto with  $\text{d} = 152$ . The lyrics are written in both French and English, corresponding to the musical phrases. The vocal line includes several melodic phrases with sustained notes and grace notes. The piano parts feature harmonic support with chords and rhythmic patterns.

The musical score is composed of eight staves of music. The top two staves are for the soprano voice, the bottom two are for the bass voice, and the middle four staves are for the piano. The vocal parts are in G major, while the piano part uses both G major and A major. The vocal entries are marked with slurs and grace notes, indicating a lyrical style. The piano part features continuous harmonic support with sustained chords and rhythmic patterns.

The musical score consists of five staves of music. The top staff is bass clef, the second is treble clef, the third is bass clef, the fourth is treble clef, and the bottom is bass clef. The vocal parts are written in common time. The piano accompaniment features a bass line and a treble line with various dynamics like forte (f), piano (p), and sforzando (sf). The lyrics are integrated into the musical lines, with some words appearing in both the original language and English. The vocal parts are separated by vertical bar lines.
