

The musical score is written for guitar and piano. It consists of four systems of music. The first system includes chords A5, G/B, and C. The second system includes chords D and E. The third system includes chords A5, G5, A5, G5, A5, G5, A5, C5, and D5, with the instruction 'D.S. al Coda' above the final two chords. The fourth system is marked with a Coda symbol and includes chords A5, G5, A5, G5, A5, G5, A5, C5, and D5. The piano part includes lyrics: '4. I was trou-ble. Ooh, some kind of trou-ble. Some kind of'.

Verse 2:

I called up my baby for a little advice,
 'Cause my sugar baby always treats me so nice.
 I had a funny feeling that he wasn't alone
 When I heard another voice whisper, "Hang up the phone."
 I got trouble, some kind of trouble.
 (To Chorus:)

Verse 3:

I went to my boss, said, "I need a little time
 To work on this poor, broken heart of mine."
 He said, "I'd like to help you, I've been there before.
 The problem is, girl, you don't work here no more.
 You got trouble, some kind of trouble."
 (To Chorus:)

Verse 4:

I was down, around as low as a body can be,
 So, I talked to my preacher 'bout praying for me.
 He smiled and he said, "Child, you're not alone,
 'Cause all God's children got to deal with their own kind of trouble."
 Some kind of trouble.
 (To Chorus:)
