2. Doing fine, but don't waste my time.
Tell me what it is you want to say.
You sin, you win, just let me in.
Hurry, I've been out in the rain all day.
So you tell me, "Trust me," I can trust you
As far as I can throw you.
And I'm trying to get out of a shadow of doubt,
'Cause I don't know if I know you.

Verse 2:

Now that you're gone I'm trying to take it,
Learning to swallow the rage.
Found a new girl, I think we can make it,
As long as she stays on the page.
This is not how I want it to end.
And I'll never be open again.

Recitation 1:

But he's the sort who can't know anyone intimately, least of all a woman.
He doesn't know what a woman is.
He wants you for possession - something to look at like a painting or an ivory box.
Something to hold and to display.
He doesn't want you to be real - to think and to live.
He doesn't love you, but I love you.
I want you to have your own thoughts and ideas and feelings,
Even when I hold you in my arms.
It's our last chance.

Recitation 2:

I can be on my own, get a job, get my own place.
Go to the mall whenever I want.
No one to tell me I'm too young.
Some people, my advice before, about facing facts, about facing reality.
And this, without a doubt, is his biggest challenge ever.
He's going to have to face it.
He's going to have to try and get some help here.
I mean, no one can say they know how he feels.
So they say that in Houston or something.
They say, "Yes, it's 180 degrees, but it's a dry heat."
In Houston they say that?
Oh, maybe not. I'm all mixed up.
Dry until they hit the swimming pool
