Detailed description: This is a musical score for a hymn, likely 'Ave Maria'. It consists of four systems of music. Each system includes a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment (grand staff). Above the vocal line, guitar chords are indicated with fret numbers and fingerings. The lyrics are written below the vocal line. The key signature has two flats (Bb and Eb). The time signature is 4/4. The score includes various musical notations such as triplets, slurs, and dynamic markings like 'rit.' and 'loco'. The final system includes a section for 'Frolo' (Frollo) with the lyrics 'Be - a - ta Ma - ri - a, you know I am a right-eous man.' and a 'loco' section for the piano part.

The musical score is written for a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The piano part features a steady eighth-note bass line in the left hand and a more melodic line in the right hand, often using chords. Chords are indicated by guitar-style diagrams and labels: Am7 and Bb maj7 appear in the first system, Am7 and Bb maj7 in the second, Am7 and Bb maj7 in the third, and Am7 and G7sus in the fourth. The vocal line consists of a single melody line with lyrics written below the notes. The score is divided into four systems, each with a vocal staff and a piano grand staff. The final measure of the piano part in the last system is marked 'rit. e cresc.'.
