When he gets drunk he fights_____ all night._____

The first system of the musical score for 'The Rose Tree' consists of a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The treble staff begins with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). The melody starts with a whole rest, followed by a half note G4, a quarter note A4, and a quarter note B4. The bass staff provides a simple accompaniment with a whole note chord of G2, B2, and D3, followed by a half note chord of G2, B2, and D3, and a quarter note chord of G2, B2, and D3. The system ends with a double bar line.

^H*Chords are implied by bass (next 16 bars only).

The musical score for 'The Rose Tree' is presented in two systems. The first system contains the first line of music, and the second system contains the second line. The melody is written on a treble clef staff, and the accompaniment is written on a bass clef staff. The key signature has one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 3/4. The melody features various articulations such as 'Full', 'sl.', and 'P', and includes a triplet of eighth notes. The accompaniment consists of a steady eighth-note pattern in the left hand, with some notes marked with '8' and '7'.

The musical score for "The Wind" by Gustav Mahler, featuring a piano (P) and a rake. The score is in 3/4 time and consists of two staves. The piano part is in G major and the rake part is in G minor. The piano part has a melody with various ornaments and a final cadence. The rake part has a bass line with various ornaments and a final cadence. The score is marked with "P" for piano and "rake" for the rake part.
