heaven. When she gets there she knows if the stores are all closed with a word she can get what she came for. Ooh, ooh, and she's buying a stairway to heaven. There's a sign on the wall but she wants to be sure 'cause you know sometimes words have two meanings. In a tree by the brook—there's a songbird who sings, sometimes

all of our thoughts are misgiv en.

Ooh,—it makes me wonder,
Ooh, it makes me wonder.

There's a feeling I get when I look to the west, and my spirit is crying for leaving. In my thoughts I have seen rings of smoke through the trees, and the voices of those who stand look...
Ooh, it makes me wonder,

Ooh, it really makes me wonder.

And it's whispered that soon if we all call the tune then the piper will lead us to reason And a new day will dawn for those who stand long and the for - ests will ech - o with laugh - er.

If there's a bus - tle in your hedge-row don't be a - larmed now, it's just a spring clean for the May queen.

Yes, there are two paths you can go by—but in the long run there's still time to change the road you're on.

And it makes me wonder.

Your head is humming and it won't go—in case you don't know.
the pip'er's call-ing you to join him.

Dear la-dy, can you hear the wind blow, and did you know your stair-way lies on the whirl-ing wind.

And as we wind on down the road

our shadows taller than our soul.

There walks a la-dy we all know who shines white light and wants to show how ev'ry thing still turns to gold. And if you listen very hard the tune will come to you at last.

When all are one and one is all to be a rock and not to
And she's buying a stairway to heaven.
